DANIELSON

Jas. Morrison Held for Norwich Authorities—Canning Demonstration This Afternoon—Red Cross Committee Much Work—Death of Simon Unexpectedly—Benjamin Newton Dies Unexpectedly.

Raymond A. Preston remains in training at Allentown, Pa., with the Brown university hospital unit.

John M. Dewe, Brown university, member of a Rhode Island battery, is spending the week-end at his home in Danielson.

Mrs. J. H. Morrison, who escaped from the state farm for inebriates, near Norwich, and who was arrested here last week, remains at the local police station, awaiting disposition of his case. Morrison had five more months of a two years' sentence to serve.

A number of clerks took advantage of their first weekly half-holiday to visit Wildwood park Thursday afternoon.

The plans of many young men relative to their summer outings are being held up pending the result of the draft.

Rev. H. N. Brown is to conduct a service at the Pentecostal church in Putnam Sunday afternoon.

A. A. Bonnell, who has been at Post Street N. Y. has resumed his duties with the Burroughs Drug company.

Band Concert.
St. James band will give the first public concert of the season on Davis park Saturday evening, when there also will be an address by Attorney E. W. Hinrichs of New York and Woodstock.

Canning Demonstration Today.
A canning demonstration at which Miss Vivian Burroughs will be the demonstrator will be given this afternoon at the rooms of the Order of the Eastern Star.

More worry: Practically a whole week of unfavorable weather during the period when hay should be under way and when actually it is almost entirely held up has the farmers uneasy. The hay crop this year has developed splendidly.

Search Lights at Mills.
Searchlights have been placed on the roofs of entry houses at the Connecticut Mills, where the grounds each night are brilliantly illuminated.

Red Cross Spends Busy Week.
The following is a list of articles made by the Danielson Red Cross during the past two months: 20 dresses, 42 pairs of socks, 52 bed pads, 215 comfort pillows, 12 knitted handkerchiefs, 1 knitted apron, 80 hospital shirts.

The number of Red Cross workers is constantly increasing, so that in the past two months there has been much larger amount of work accomplished.

OBITUARY.

Simon Broten.
Simon Broten, 44, died Thursday morning at the Day Kimball hospital in Putnam. The family resides on Carter street. Mr. Broten has been in failing health for the past three years and within a few months his condition had become critical. He was a native of Sweden and had been in the employ of Contractor Danvers Boulton.

Benjamin Newton.
Benjamin Newton, an about 70, died Wednesday night at the George Paine place on the Green Hollow road. Mr. Newton came to the Paine place a few weeks ago, remarking that he had been allowed to make his home on the farm. This remark was a fraud. He had been in the employ of Contractor Danvers Boulton.

Will Attend Reynolds Reunion.
Misses Rebecca and Edith Rathbun are the guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Reynolds, at the annual reunion to be held at the Hotel McLean, Thursday.

Theresa A. Reynolds is here from her first visit to Texas waters. This is his first visit home in fifteen months.

Heard and Seen.
The Congregational church and parish house are being painted.

Miss Lillian Hewitt is in New York City attending a special course in a penmanship school.

Mrs. Catherine Haley is visiting her mother, Mrs. Samuel Chesbro, in New York.

William Noyes, Edward Travena, Lee Cook, Louis Neidinger and Thomas Weir have returned after two weeks' camping on Fisher's Island.

Harry B. MacKenzie and Carroll Bliven are in Boston, making the trip in Mr. Bliven's automobile.

Jerry Holmes has returned to his home in Putnam after a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard I. Greene and son of New York are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Duhaime on Jackson street.

Capt. E. C. Clauson is at Glen Cove, L. I. for the summer.

PUTNAM

Rev. C. J. Harriman to Leave Sunday—Clerks' First Half Holiday Yesterday—Captain Ryan Stops Games of Chance at Carnival—Liquor Dealers Getting Anxious—The First Installment of Names of Men Liable for Draft.

Rev. C. J. Harriman, pastor of St. Philip's church, is to leave here Sunday for South Main street, in Worcester, attending to matters pertaining to Red Cross work.

Many attended the funeral services held for Dr. Harvey H. Converse at the church in Eastford Thursday afternoon.

First Half Holiday.
Business was practically suspended in Putnam Thursday afternoon, the first half-holiday of the summer season.

Samuel Smith, who is in business on South Main street, is spending a few days in New York.

John B. Byrne, state bank examiner, is spending the week-end at his home here.

Rush of Freight.
Great quantities of freight are being handled in the local railroad yard at present.

There is to be a special program of music at the service at the Baptist church next Sunday evening.

Sunday School Picnic.
Members of the Congregational Sunday school had a splendid time during Thursday at the outing held at Greene's grove in Quantic.

A meeting of the Red Cross society of Abington was held in that place Thursday afternoon. The Abington society is an auxiliary of the chapter headquarters of the state.

Leroy E. Tourtellotte of Limona, Pa., is visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. Tourtellotte.

Henry Lewis of Cleveland, O., visited here with Mr. and Mrs. David Smith.

Putnam lodge had more representatives in Boston Thursday at the annual session of the grand lodge of Elks.

NO GAMES OF CHANCE.
Capt. Joseph Ryan makes Carnival Management Suspend Amusement: Suggestive of Gambling.

Captain Joseph Ryan ordered Thursday that all games of chance be suspended at the carnival that has been in session on the corner of Bridge and South Main streets this week. The action followed a series of complaints made to city officials relative to the nature of the games, which are held to be in violation of the anti-gambling law of the state.

The carnival was in session on Thursday night, the shows running and games of skill, etc., in operation, but the games of chance were banned and will be while the carnival remains here.

Persons connected with the show sought to have the ban raised, but were unsuccessful in their attempts.

Non-registration Will be Detected.
A letter issued from United States district attorney at Hartford by the local exemption board deals with certain names of young men who have failed to register.

Some such cases have come to light in this section, most of them being discovered when persons have been presented in court. There may be others who have not registered. If there be any such and the names be obtained, the names will be sent to the proper federal authorities at Hartford, and prosecutions will follow.

Liquor Dealers Anxious.
Liquor dealers here, according to their holdings, are more or less puzzled over the possibilities of the prohibition legislation proposed at Washington. Their chief concern is over what disposition may be made of the whiskey stocks which some local dealers in this town have on hand.

YOUNG MEN REGISTERED—
